

Barton Phillips

Barton Phillips joined Millers with a degree in commerce and law from the University of Queensland, Australia.

Barton entered the Miller group through the London office and in 1990 accepted a posting to Transport Mutual Services, Sydney, where he further developed the claims handling and advisory services that the Club offers its members.

In 1994 Barton was appointed to the role of General Manager of Transport Mutual Services. He is responsible for all facets of the Club's operations throughout Australia, New Zealand and Papua New Guinea.

Barton is a solicitor and has read for a masters of law (majoring in maritime law) at Southampton University, England. Prior to joining Millers, Barton practised in Ernst and Young's insolvency division, after serving a term as a Judge's associate.

Barton is a member of the Maritime Law Association of Australia and New Zealand.
