

Frank Turner

Frank Turner was admitted to practice as a solicitor in 1972 and has been a partner in Thynne & Macartney since 1977. He heads the firm's Shipping and Transport Group.

THYNNE & MACARTNEY is Brisbane based, operates throughout Queensland and Oceania and has close strategic alliances with firms in the other Australian jurisdictions in order to provide a national presence.

The firm practices in most areas of the law, with particular emphasis on transport (especially maritime) and international trade. The firm is a correspondent for all major protection and indemnity associations.