

NOTICE TO MLAANZ MEMBERS OF MISSING CONFERENCE PAPERS FOR 2003

Business Session 1: Is the Ocean a Free For All?

1. 'Responsible Fisheries Management: International and Domestic Laws and Protocols', by Geoff Rohan, Australian Fisheries Management Authority
2. 'Reasonable Bonds under UNCLOS', by Paul David, Wilson Harle, Auckland

Business Session 2: The Future Direction for the Cruise Industry

1. 'Cruising: Fun and Affordable Luxury', by Richard Hein AM, P&O Cruises
2. 'Dangerous Cargo and the Cruise Ship Operator: Recent Developments in Passenger Liability', by Simon Liddy, Ebsworth & Ebsworth
3. 'The Cruise Industry: Liabilities under the Trade Practices Act', by Kate Lewins, Murdoch University

Business Session 3: Issues in Admiralty Reform

1. 'Underlying substantive and procedural issues: 1. The nature of arrest and the extent of disclosure; and 2. Beneficial ownership and jurisdictional facts', by Justice James Allsop, Federal Court of Australia
2. 'Admiralty Reform and the Role of the Courts', by Justice George Palmer, Supreme Court of NSW
3. 'International perspectives on Admiralty procedures', by Martin Davies, Tulane Maritime Law Center
4. 'Update on Ports of Refuge', by Tom Broadmore, Waterfront Chambers
5. 'Update on Transport Law', by Stuart Hetherington, Withnell Hetherington
6. 'The Sustainable Logistics Systems – A Port Operator's Perspective', by Simon Mahady, Port of Melbourne

Business Session 4: Pollution Response Post the Prestige: IMO Developments

1. 'The International debate on multilateral or unilateral responses to major marine pollution incidents', by Michael Julian, Michael J Julian Pty Ltd
2. 'New challenges for the regime of compensation for oil pollution damage, 35 years after the Torrey Canyon', by Alfred Popp QC, IMO
3. 'Salvage Command and Control', addressed by Russell Kilvington (Maritime Safety Authority of New Zealand), Captain John Lee-Richards (Maritime Safety Authority of New Zealand), and John Burton (Izard Weston, Wellington)

Business Session 5: Ship and Port Security

1. 'SOLAS Chapter XI-2 and the ISPS Code: The IMO's Response to 9/11', by Frank Wall, Department for Transport, UK
2. 'Australia's approach to the implementation of the ISPS Code', by Andrew Tongue, Department of Transport and Regional Services
3. 'Legal issues affecting ports and port users', by Barbara Filipowski, Sydney Ports Corporation
4. 'Port of Brisbane, developing effective maritime security', by Wayne Taratoa, Port of Brisbane Corporation

Business Session 6: The Australian Shipping Industry - Challenges & Reform

1. 'Bringing Our Ships Home', addressed by The Hon John Sharp and The Hon Peter Morris (Independent Review of Australian Shipping)

2. 'Independent Review of Australian Shipping: The Ship Owners Perspective', by Lachlan Payne, Australian Shipowners Association